Refund Policy and Conditions:

If payments are made to an agency for a course at Hansa Language Centre, refund requests will be handled by the agent, and the agent's refund policy will apply.

If payments are made directly to Hansa Language Centre, the following refund policy will apply:

- If written notice of withdrawal is received prior to the scheduled start date of the course and the student's application for a visa was denied by Citizenship and Immigration Canada, Hansa Language Centre will fully refund fees paid minus the registration fee and any bank or credit card charges incurred. A copy of the rejection letter from Citizenship and Immigration Canada will be required for processing.
- If written notice of withdrawal is received prior to the scheduled start date of the course and no visa rejection letter is provided, Hansa Language Centre will refund the fees paid minus the registration fee, any bank or credit card charges incurred, and an indemnity of 10% of the course fees.
- If written notice of withdrawal is received after the start date of the course, four weeks' notice is required to be eligible for a refund. Only the amount paid for the remaining portion of the original program, four weeks from the date notice was received, will be refunded. In such case, however, students will be required to prove that the requirements of their visa will be met and their stay in Canada will be lawful.

Non-attendance, by itself, does not constitute an official withdrawal. Hansa is required to share information with Citizenship and Immigration Canada as a condition of being a designated institution approved under the International Student Program.

I, the undersigned, wish to register for the above-mentioned course under the stipulated conditions having read and understood the enrollment form.
